About our Coach

Ron Hopkins has been coaching both men's and women's basketball for nearly 30 years at all levels from community league to summer basketball clubs to college teams. Besides being president and head coach of Swoosh Canada, he is the head coach of the Bellerose Composite High School's Senior Girls' Basketball team and assistant coach of the NAIT Women's Basketball team. Upon starting with Bellerose, the team quickly became one of the top teams in Tier 2 Basketball in Edmonton. He also helped Scona High School achieve their first ever #1 Provincial Ranking. Throughout his career, he has been a critical part of helping three different colleges change their history. His club teams have been successful both nationally and internationally. Ron has coached over 100 athletes that have gone to play at the post-secondary level in both Canada and the United States. Ron's hard work, determination, and passion for the game are the cornerstones of Swoosh Canada.
